

INVITATION LETTER

4th Erasmus+ Week for Teaching Staff April 9-13, 2018 University of Dubrovnik

Dear Partner,

The University of Dubrovnik is one of the youngest Croatian public universities, founded in 2003. UNIDU's modern development is based on a long tradition that goes back to the 17th century when "Collegium Ragusinum" was established. It was the first public institution of higher education in the Republic of Ragusa (14th - 19th century). Nowadays, the University of Dubrovnik stands out for the variety of academic programs offered, its organization and technical equipment as well as for its unique geographical position ("Dubrovnik is the Pearl of the Adriatic sea").

One of the strategic goals of the University of Dubrovnik is to strengthen the quality of studying and learning through the mobility of students and (non)teaching staff in order to become internationally recognized institution of higher education. To achieve this goal UNIDU is investing a huge effort in promoting advantages of mobility. This promotion involves, among other, the organisation of staff weeks.

We are using this opportunity to announce the 4th edition of the Erasmus+ Week in Dubrovnik for teaching staff from our Erasmus+ partner institutions, taking place from 9-13 April 2018. Although this year's Erasmus+ Week is intended for teaching staff, we would gladly accept members of other staff as well and if possible organise „job-shadowing“ activities for them.

The working language will be English and teachers should give 8h of lectures at UNIDU departments in regards to their scientific field. Beside this, all participants will have the opportunity to present their home institution during the Erasmus+ International fair, as well as to participate in different social activities.

The funding is possible from the Erasmus+ grant distributed by the home university (please check the availability of such funding with the Erasmus coordinator at your institution), which should cover the costs of travel, accommodation and meals.

You can apply to participate in the Erasmus+ Week in Dubrovnik by completing the attached Application Form and sending it by e-mail at: international@unidu.hr.

Important dates:

- Deadline for application submission: February 28th, 2018
- Confirmation of acceptance: by March 9th, 2018

We look forward to welcoming you in Dubrovnik,

prof. Martin Lazar, PhD
Vice-rector for International Relations and Science
