

6th Erasmus+ Staff Week
for Teaching Staff
University of Dubrovnik, Croatia
March 30 – April 3, 2020

Dear Partners,

it is our great pleasure to announce the 6th edition of the ERASMUS+ staff week for teaching staff at the University of Dubrovnik, Croatia that will take place from March 30 – April 3, 2020.

University of Dubrovnik is one of the youngest Croatian public universities, founded in 2003. However, its modern development is based on a long tradition that goes back to the 17th century. Nowadays, the University of Dubrovnik stands out for the variety of academic programs offered, its organization and technical equipment as well as for its unique geographical position ("Dubrovnik is the Pearl of the Adriatic sea") and the cultural heritage protected by Unesco.

International cooperation has always been of particular interest for the development and affirmation of the University of Dubrovnik. Unique geographic position of the city of Dubrovnik and its historical and tourist significance are just some of the reasons why international development is an important strategic objective of the University. One of the strategic goals of the University of Dubrovnik is to strengthen the quality of studying and learning through the mobility of students and (non)teaching staff in order to become internationally recognized institution of higher education. To achieve this goal UNIDU is investing a huge effort in promoting advantages of mobility. This promotion involves, among other, the organisation of staff weeks.

The 6th edition of the staff week is intended for teaching staff from our partner universities. Teaching staff should fill in the attached application form and specify the courses they regularly teach at home institutions. The working language of the Erasmus+ Staff Week at the University of Dubrovnik is English.

The funding is possible from the Erasmus+ grant distributed by the home university (please check the availability of such funding with the Erasmus coordinator at your institution), which should cover the costs of travel, accommodation and meals.

You can apply to participate in the Erasmus+ Staff Week in Dubrovnik by completing the attached Application Form and sending it by e-mail to: international@unidu.hr.

Important dates:

- Deadline for application submission: February 14, 2020.
- Confirmation of acceptance: by February 21, 2020.

We look forward to welcoming you in Dubrovnik,

prof. Martin Lazar, PhD
Vice-rector for International Relations and Science
