

2022-23 Call for Applications

Visiting Scholars Programme at the School of Economics and Business

Universidad de Navarra, Spain

The School of Economics and Business -SEB- of the Universidad de Navarra (Pamplona, Spain) invites applications for the Visiting Scholars Programme in the areas of Business and Economics for the academic year 2022-23.

Schedule

Fall 2022 visits will take place between September and December 2022. Spring 2023 visits will take place between January and April 2023. The deadline for applications is March 31, 2022. On top of the call for applications, an informal rolling admission will also take place based on the applications received.

Applicants

The present call is addressed to professors and researchers with proven teaching experience, who are faculty members in European and non-European universities and research centres. Preference will be given to academics from our strategic and key partner institutions.

Teaching Requirements

The proposed course must offer a 6 academic credits (60 in-class contact academic sessions of 45 minutes each). The language of instruction must be English. The minimum duration is one quarter.

Funding

The SEB reimburses a single round-trip economy class ticket to Pamplona. The SEB also offers a remuneration intended to cover the teaching involvement.

Relationship with the SEB

We also encourage Visiting Scholars to participate fully in the research life of the SEB, for example by attending the research seminars and other events related to research. We expect Visiting Scholars to present their own work in a seminar whilst they are visiting the SEB, as well as spending office hours with faculty and PhD students.

Computer facilities and desk space

We provide the Visiting Scholars with office space as well as access to university facilities, including libraries and computer resources.

Application

Applications should be submitted to the International Office and include the following required documents: updated CV including a short list of recent publications and teaching preferences (Corporate Finance; Financial Statement Analysis; Innovation Models; Microeconomics; Large Scale Computing).

All applications should be submitted by email at intrel-eco@unav.es with the subject: Visiting Scholar Programme at SEB-UN.
